LOCAL BREVITIES.

And now the rain has come to lay the dust and bless us.

Lopez's present a new ad. this week. Read and profit by it.

The cold wave came near beating the Weather Bureau's telegram.

A St. Louis party is contemplating putting a wood-working factory in the old Arcadia Valley Mill building.

The Shapleigh well is nearing a satisfactory conclusion, with good flow of water twenty-seven feet in the rock.

Dave Stout was brought home from the Reformatory School Monday, by the secretary of that institution. The boy is sick with consumption.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. Eli Depew, on Sept. 22d, 1895, at 7 p. m., a son. All the folks are doing well, and the neighbors say, "he got there, Eli!"

Rev. Duty has bought Rev. Hurley's horse, the latter gentlemen intending, we understand, to take a lengthened trip into the everglades of Florida.

The circus bill-board shines out in all its glory; but, alas! its dimensions are not adequate to the covering of the hideousness of the burnt district.

We saw the local justice of the peace the other day rushing down street with a salted head. Luckily, he caught his horse before the marshal got around.

Lemen Brothers' Combined Circus, Menagerie, Hippodrome, Oceanic Aquarium, and Congress of Living Phenomena, will exhibit at Ironton, Tuesday, October 8th.

The hot spell was broken Sunday evening, and the drought ended last night. What with reasonable temperature and refreshing wetness, all mankind should be happy.

Jno. W. Polk of Marble Creek last Saturday presented the editor with a best twenty-four inches long, and weighing four pounds and two ounces. Come along, boys, and beat it who can!

The cool wave caused quite an exodus of summer residents and visitors. Gen. Turner's residence is now vacant of the family, as are also those of Dr. Forster, Wm. H. Thomson, H. J. Grover, R. F. Shapleigh, R. H. Jones, and others.

Our friend, Gregor Thome, yesterday brought us a basket of apples, the size and general excellence of which do credit to him as a fruit-grower. The twenty-two in the basket measured over a peck. They are of the green and red pippin varieties. They are perfect apples.

The treasury of the city is no longer empty, and its vaults are no longer worth dollar for dollar. Some needed improvements will be made on main street this fall, but the money will be judiciously and carefully expended, and it is believed everything will be in good condition by spring. Taxes are being promptly paid.

All the children, their pa's and ma's, brothers, sisters, aunts, uncles and cousins will have a desire to see Rajah, the largest Elephant in the world. He is actually worth his weight in gold, and constitutes only one of the many interesting sights with Lemen Brothers' World's Best Shows which will exhibit at Ironton, Tuesday, October 8th.

Judge Jos. A. Zwart returned to Ironton some ten days ago, after spending the summer in the Far West in search of good health. We are glad to note that his physical condition is greatly improved, and hope in time the recollection of the severe sickness which prostrated him last winter and spring may assume only the uncertain features of an ugly dream. He is holding Probate Court this week.

Programme to be rendered by the members of the Holmes Reading circle at the meeting on Monday, Oct. 7. Election of officers. Vocal music, Miss L. Fairchild. Each member is to read a short sketch of what he has gained through his relations with the society during the past winter. Adjournment of programme committee. A paper on the theories in regard to the peopling of the American continent, by Mr. Duty.

Th' arctesian well on the Arcadia Valley, Mill premises is over three hundred feet deep, and has a constant flow. The water is said to be possessed of valuable medicinal properties, but it has not been analyzed. We presume this is about the only summer resort in the United States where those properties would not have long since been determined, and the result, if favorable, heralded to the world. But we're slow—mighty slow!—here in the Valley.

Lemen Brothers' is not only the best Circus in the world, but also the leading Zoological Institute of every continent. It has, in addition, a superb Hippodrome, and the only Aquarium of deep sea monsters in the country; also many living wonders obtained in its travels that would be impossible for others whose territory of action is limited to frequently not more than a thousand miles from their native village. Lemen Brothers are favorably known wherever civilization extends as the foremost, most enterprising and reliable of managers. The Great Show will exhibit at Ironton, Tuesday, October 8th.

Last Saturday Sheriff O'Neal got a message from the U. S. Marshal that a deputy would come down that evening with a prisoner, and requesting him to meet them at the station. Accordingly, Mr. O'Neal was on hand when the Arcadia came in, but, although several persons got off the train, he could not discern the parties he was expecting. He therefore called out, "Where is that man that's to go to jail?" "Here I am," came from a man in the crowd. He had come alone to go to jail! The sheriff took the self-guarded prisoner and gave him lodging. The offense charged against this man is selling a quart of whiskey at a picnic.

Mr. David M. Brewer, after an absence of many years, has returned, and will give an excellent entertainment at the Academy of Music to-night, Thursday, Sept. 26th. Several splendid recitations: The Soul of the Violin, Chariot Race—Ben Hur, Alabama Wedding, Tradin' Joe, The Vagabond Prince, Miss Hulda, Calls, The Face upon the Floor, One-Legged Goose, Winning-Cup's Race, The Stammering Man, etc. Beautiful tableaux under colored lights, Living Pictures in Greek Costume, Attitude of Love, Anger, Sorrow, Religious Devotion, etc., by young ladies of Ironton. Partly for the benefit of the Public School Library. Admission, with reserved seats, 25c. Adults and children, 15c and 10c.

Last Sunday night the station house here was broken into and robbed of several express packages. The thief, or thieves, were evidently after money, for they broke open the till and removed the cash which they supposed the cash might be deposited. The safe was not bothered, the thieves, to all appearance, being amateurs, and not provided with tools to crack a burglar-proof. The articles taken were a package of laundry, box of shirts, a cape, expressed to Lopez's, and the agent's gray coat. Search was made next morning, but no trace of the goods or thieves could be found; but Tuesday, one of the circus bill-posters, meandering over the field east of the station, ran across all the articles, carefully piled in one place. He brought them in and delivered them to the agent. The station had been entered through the window, the burglar breaking out a pane of glass and removing the fastening.

It is thought desirable to collect for exhibition at Atlanta samples of all road materials of good quality which can be obtained from the various sections of the country. These samples will afterwards be transferred to Washington for permanent exhibition there. Each sample should be shipped in a nail keg and plainly marked "Roads, U. S. Department of Agriculture, Exposition Grounds, Atlanta, Georgia," and sent by freight. Each shipment should also be marked with its locality and the kind of rock, chert, gravel or other material. The freight will be paid by the Department. For smaller packages, upon application by postal card to the Office of Road Inquiry, Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C., franks and directions for free mailing will be promptly furnished to all who desire to send exhibits. This is an opportunity to exhibit the road materials of the State free of charge and then have them placed on permanent exhibition at Washington which should not be overlooked or neglected. We hope that every county in the State having rock, gravel or other material of good quality will take prompt action in forwarding samples to Atlanta and that such interest may be taken as will result in a creditable exhibit. In sending material the instructions above given should be carefully noted that the samples may reach the proper department at Atlanta and that the localities in this State may be given credit for the shipment.

Our readers will remember the killing of Mr. John A. W. Russell in Reynolds county about a month ago. At the time of the killing—the deceased having been shot from the brush—it was wrapped in mystery; but later developments have taken away that feature of the case. The wife of the deceased, Minerva C. Russell, at the coroner's inquest, surprised and horrified the jury and others present by her testimony and virtual confession of being particeps criminis. We here give her statement under oath: "My husband was killed a while back; don't remember the day, but was killed on Monday about 11 o'clock. Did see Dick Dalton that day about 11 o'clock; was on the hill above the stable; had gun with him; a Winchester; said he was going to kill Russell, with it; but I did not believe he would do it; he said he would kill him there in the yard but it was too near dinner time; a horse was brought out of the lot about that time for Russell to go to Mr. Jones' store; Dalton knew Russell was going to the store, he asked me and I told him; he said he would go to the Witherow house; I believe he said he would kill him as he passed; I don't know how long I was up on the hill, I went up there to meet him; he threw rocks to signal me; it was a general sign for me to meet him; when I saw the rock I went to him; he told me two years ago last Christmas he would kill Mr. Russell; he talked about it this year, a while after threshing was over; it was the understanding he was to have me to himself after killing my husband; he asked me if I would pay him and I told him I would see about it. * * * I saw Mr. Dalton on the way coming back from Salem, he went home with us and stayed all night. He said next morning that he had killed my husband and wanted to have a talk with me. I met him in the evening. He had been pretty shy about meeting me; I met him at 11 that day, I didn't notice the gun; I knew the gun Dalton had was a Winchester; Dalton wanted me to run off with him sometime before; he said he was to have me all to himself, or that was the meaning of it; I recollect when he borrowed Dick's horse, but I don't know how many c. p. ridges was in the gun; I heard Dick say there were 5 in the poke; I didn't know he intended to kill my husband when he got the gun; I met him on top of the hill in the brush; when I started to the house he was standing still, then he went up the hill, the only way to keep in the brush. Next time I saw him was that evening at 3 o'clock; he never spoke to me; he didn't shoot him in the yard, because it would raise a disturbance near dinner time; I told him not to kill him near the house; I did not hear the gun. Sylvester had started to work and heard the shooting. I am telling the truth about this matter; I hope to die if every word is not the truth."

Annapolis News.

I once more attempt to write the scattering news of Annapolis, hoping it will reach the columns of the REGISTER and not the waste basket.

The "Bulletin" has been out in Madison county at the General Baptist Association at Green Chapel School-house. The Association was well attended by the pastors of the different churches; also, delegates from different churches; and there were many visiting brethren of the different denominations. Among the visiting brethren I saw Rev. Pascal Buford from Bellevue, Mo. The Convention on Divine Service chose S. A. McPeak to preach on the 16th at 11 o'clock in the forenoon and Pascal Buford to follow. Their text was from the 15th chapter and 18th verse of St. Luke, and was ably handled by both of the ministers. At the closing Brother Buford called for mourners while they sung a hymn, and there was a goodly number gave their hand and several shouted with joy, and Brother Buford was happy himself; and, in fact, there were several happy ones.

There is some law going on in Justice court at this place before S. Kitchell, J. P. The first is F. C. Warnock vs. Adolph Lotz, compromised; second, Clarkson & Kinch vs. John Smith, on account of judgment by default; third, Thomas Henry Brewer vs. Thomas Jackson, on account for labor. The result was, by jury, $12.62 judgment and $19 costs. Fourth, David Paris saved having a law suit with R. Harris by getting a compromise without going into court. Mr. Paris had a couple of fine cows shot and killed, worth $25, and compromised by H. promising to pay $20.

Rev. J. W. Alcorn and W. C. Wadlow are going to Bellevue to-day, and expect a good meeting at Pleasant Valley church.

There was a peace warrant sworn out to-day before Squire Kitchell. Times are dull and money scarce. I say, hurrah for money silver! is my vote. ANNAPOILIS BULLETIN.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla is not a secret preparation. Any physician may have the formula on application. The secret of its success as a medicine lies in its extraordinary power to cleanse the blood of impurities and cure the most deep-seated cases of blood-disease.

Vulcan News.

In our last article we were quoted as saying that "certain bull gored ten horses." It should have read, "two horses," instead. We make mention of this for fear that some of our readers might think that Mr. Smith has embarked in the stock ranch business. The chills are prevalent among us at present.

We notice Mr. Boss Sisk of Rushville in town to-day.

Mrs. Blitzer has returned from visiting at Indianapolis, and has removed to Rushville.

There is to be a game of base ball played at Vulcan to-day.

Several car loads of piling are being shipped from Vulcan at present. The lumber business is rather on the boom. Horse-swapping has been the main feature of interest at this place this week.

A certain gentleman living in the West End recently determined to accomplish what the doctor had, so far, failed to do—namely, the curing of two patients of the chills. He accordingly furnished each of them with a half gallon of Smiley's best. As a result one of the victims was almost prostrated next day. The other we have not heard from, but seeing the amateur doctor in town next morning borrowing a pick and shovel, we are led to entertain grave fears for his safety.

If, as some say, the hen that hatches the egg is the mother of the chicken, and not the hen that lays the egg, "Uncle Isaac" kindly inform us if that turkey gobble is the mother of those chicks hatched by him? We would like some information on this. Will "Uncle Isaac" give it?

Brunot Items.

Ed. Register—We are having real hot weather at the present. It is also dry, but the south wind indicates a shower in the near future.

People are about done saving fodder, and are getting ready to sow wheat. Barnes and Mr. Wray, who have been trading, have exchanged homes. Mr. Barnes has gone to Gravelton to make his home, while Mr. Wray has come to Brunot. We are proud to gain Mr. Wray, but sorry to lose Mr. Barnes.

Mr. Barnes has gone to Gravelton for the purpose of educating his children. He has made a good selection. He would not have gone to a better school than old Concordia is, with its three honorable and able instructors.

Mr. John Chilton has moved his family to Brunot. It is thought that his wife has the consumption.

Mr. C. W. Chilton of this place has gone to St. Louis. Mr. Chilton is an industrious man and will be much missed by the people of this community.

Mr. Ward of Urso and Mr. Ferguson of Gravelton have been visiting friends of Brunot. They both rank first among Wayne county's best school teachers.

Mr. C. J. Russell was at home Saturday from Vulcan, where he is teaching school.

Mrs. White and Mrs. Whitener are visiting their parents at Castor. Messrs. Claid and Henry Whitener of Gravelton paid their sister, Mrs. Hickman, a visit last Sunday.

Mr. Fulton of Paterson, who was employed to teach the Farr school, is getting along nicely.

From Grantville.

Ed. Register—George B. Clifton, who has been employed as postmaster at the Syenite Company's store, for the past year, left yesterday for St. Louis having resigned his position here, and will hereafter become a citizen of Missouri's metropolis.
Mrs. James Bear left yesterday for Kansas City, to join her husband, who preceded her some four or five days ago.

Miss Emma Lindsay returned to her home in the city yesterday, after spending a couple of weeks in a pleasant visit with her old associates in this place.

Work in the stone cutting department with the Syenite Company is suspended, pending some needed repairs to their steam traveler, which will probably take a week.

Several cases of sickness among our children are reported, but none, however, are of a serious nature.
The rumor is current that the Schneider Company are expecting a large granite job, but as we have been living on hopes and expectations for the last four years, we, as a matter of course, pay little attention to rumors. Yet it is said that there is so much smoke there is bound to become fire; and so it is with rumors: there might possibly be a little truth, and in this case we trust there is.

Willie Lindsay came down from the city to spend Sunday with his best girl in town.

Intelligence from the headquarters of the various labor organizations are to the effect that the Rand McNally Publishing Company of Chicago, will hereafter employ none but union printers, having settled with the Typographical Union.

This is surely, a decisive victory, and a great cause for congratulation on the part of union labor, and shows the desirability of employing that class of labor that want to maintain good wages and at the same time strive to give an honest day's work for an honest day's pay.

It will be remembered that a boycott has been placed on the above named firm for several months, which evidently has had a wonderful effect on the sale of their publications; hence the change.

Mr. W. R. Whitcomb of St. Louis spent Sunday with acquaintances in town.
Sept. 23, 1895. CAP.

In cases where dandruff, scalp diseases, falling and grayness of the hair appear, do not neglect them, but apply a proper remedy and tonic like Hall's Hair Renewer.

Clones News.

Ed. Register—Owing to ill health and various other causes, I am somewhat behind hand with my communications from this point; but, while this is true, the REGISTER still continues to visit me regularly once a week.

From some cause or other, not known to the writer, the Friday's issue of the Globe fails to reach us out here on time. Postal clerks, are you all asleep all the time?

The regular meeting at this place on Sunday last was attended by a fairly large audience; Rev. Mincher preached.

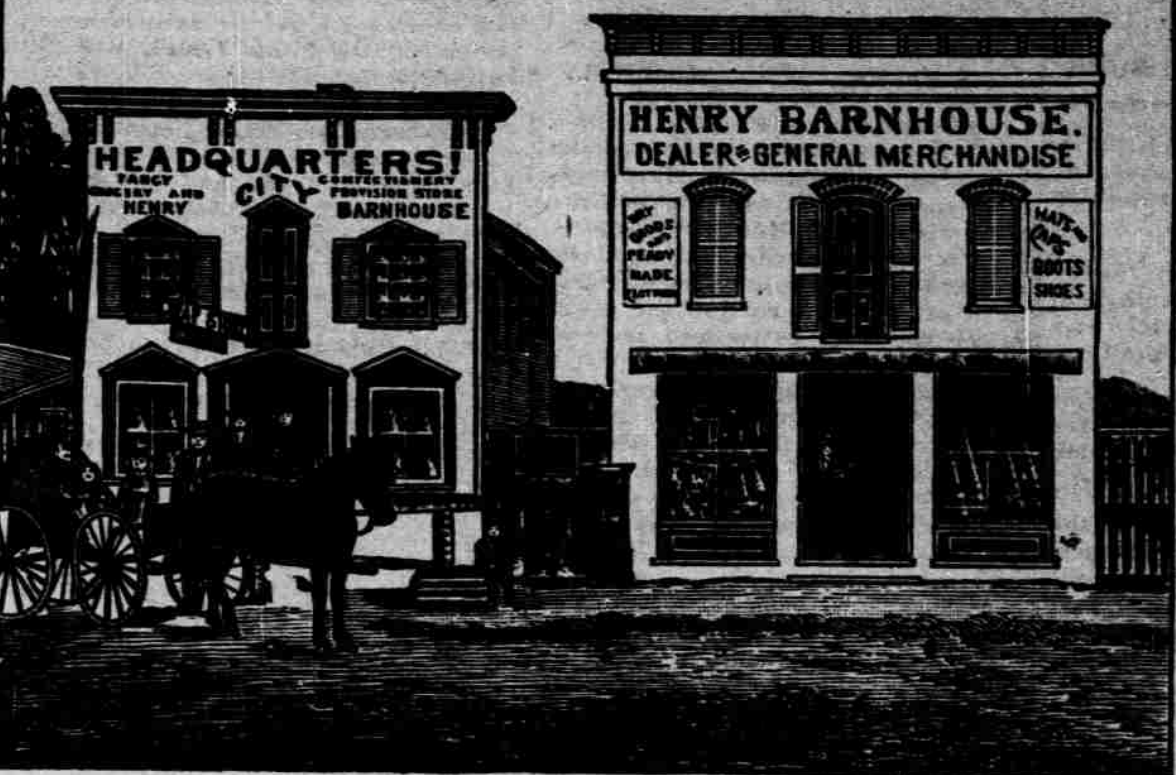

J. B. Holloman, Esq., was out here on Saturday last for the purpose of surveying a tract of land for H. Latham and the writer.

Prof. Fred Curoton left the West End recently to open his school at Millersville, Mo. We are sorry that Mr. C. has left us, for he is a scholar and gentleman, whose influence for good we very much need out here.

what he believed to be right, no one could dictate to him.

We very much enjoyed "H. M. B.'s" communication in last week's REGISTER.

Giles McMahon, one of our most enterprising and successful farmers, made a trip to Ironton on the 15th, returning home on the afternoon of 17th.

Mrs. Patrick McMahon, St. Louis, recently spent a few days out here, visiting Mrs. Mary McMahon and others.

Recently the writer, accompanied by Mollie, Minnie and Otto Patterson, took an afternoon to drive down to the store of J. S. Eaton at Edge Hill. While returning, Mrs. Goggin came out, presented us with a basket of as fine tomatoes as we ever saw in this section. Mrs. G., though years ago left a widow with five children, has reared them to be industrious, good citizens; all of whom are married, but Miss Sarah, who is an exemplary Christian young lady, respected by all who know her.

Nelson Hawk, Esq., paid us a short visit on Saturday last.

Mr. and Mrs. John Miller visited J. M. Latham on Sunday last.

A. H. Eaton will take in the Fair at St. Louis.
